

Signatories – HSBC Current Account

06 May 2024

OVERVIEW

The current councillor signatories for the HSBC current account have retired.

New councillor signatories are required for the HSBC current account.

This is a two-signatory account, so a minimum of two councillors are required to be signatories.

Once the new signatories have been added to the account, the retired councillors need to be removed as signatories

COUNCIL DECISIONS

- To decide how many councillors are required to become signatories of the account.
- To approve which councillors will become signatories of the account.
- To approve the removal of the retired councillors when the new signatories have been added.
